

Opportunities

Information about any of these is available in the College and Career Center

Hospital Volunteers

If students are interested in volunteering at a Legacy Hospital contact the College and Career Center.

OSU Business School

OSU Business School is offering students a chance to come experience events hosted in the college of business. There are a wide variety of topics and dates from which to choose. You could experience life as a Beaver business student.

MHCC Leadership

Did you know that MHCC has a leadership program called SOAR that pays for 12 credits per term if you are a member? The application will open soon. In the meantime, if you'd like to learn more about the program and see how you can gain valuable leadership skills and experience, come to the CCC.

Diesel Day

Friday, May 5, 9am-2pm at PCC, Rock Creek, you could hear about what local diesel employers have to say about their industry as they display the newest, heavy equipment and medium/heavy duty trucks. You would be able to check out several hands-on learning sessions for students who wish to find what today's Diesel Technicians do in their field. Come for the free BBQ lunch and door prizes.

Trades Women Career Day

Young women interested in a career in trades, get information about a field trip to the Women in Trade Career Fair on May 19. Spots are limited, so don't delay.

Future Architects

Portland State University School of Architecture is offering students a change to participate in a Summer Immersion Program for 4 weeks this summer for current seniors. Students will earn college credit, participate in portfolio opportunities, meet professionals and more.

Volunteers needed

Students interested in working with children and their horses, then TherapyWorks NW has a great community service opportunity available. Not only will it be a great experience, it will also make a direct impact in the future of these children and will help build your resume with TherapyWorks as a professional reference.

Summer Job

Are you a student looking for a summer job and are strong and willing to work hard? A local property owner is looking for dependable workers to do work over the spring and all summer. Info is on the board outside the College and Career Center.

Young Women Firefighters

Young women interested in firefighting, opportunities are available to you. You can learn more about the great career choice and get details about the Portland Metro Fire Camp taking place this summer. The camp is free but fills very quickly, so don't delay.

Internship Programs

Are you or your student looking for summer work or internship programs? The City of Gresham is hosting CityFest on May 13 from 10am-2pm in the City Hall parking lot. Information on local jobs and demonstrations from departments within the city will be there. Learn how the City works for you, and how you can work for the City. All families are welcome. For more information about this event and the websites to visit, see the links below.

<https://greshamoregon.gov/Events/2017/Community-Events/CityFest/>, and <https://greshamoregon.gov/internships/>
<http://www.worksystems.org/summerworks>, or <https://greshamoregon.gov/Internship-Interest-Form/-->

NROTC

Any student interested in learning more about NROTC scholarships, valued at a minimum of $180,000, should plan to attend an informational meeting on Thursday, May 25 during 1st lunch in the back of the library. Learn about what is required to apply and the many benefits of this prestigious program. Come to the College & Career Center to sign up for the meeting. This is particularly important for juniors.

DESIGN CAREER DAY

McKinstry Design Career Day will be held on May 11th. McKinstry is a leading full-service DBOM firm (design, build, operate & maintain). Students will tour their facility, learn about the company, talk with professionals, do multiple hands-on activities and learn about career paths. No charge to participate but space is limited. Open to grades 10, 11 & 12.